Carbon Monoxide (CO) Gas Can Kill!
- It's an odourless gas and does not smell
- NEVER use a portable barbeque or gas burner INSIDE a tent, awning or enclosed space (for cooking, or heating when cold)
- A COOLING barbeque can also give off poisonous gas!
- Never run a generator inside a tent, awning or confined space
- Consider purchasing a Carbon Monoxide alarm and use it inside your caravan or motorhome if running an installed gas appliance – but don't rely on it!

NEVER INSIDE

Safe Gas Cylinder Storage and Use
- Always CHECK your cylinder for damage before using
- Maintain good ventilation when using portable gas (remember to use it outside only)
- Always store in an UPRIGHT position
- If a cylinder falls over, check it, stand it up and leave it to settle before connecting it
- NEVER smoke near any gas cylinders and keep all ignition sources away
- Always use manufacturer hoses, connectors and follow their guidance
- If you use a gas appliance, SERVICE IT REGULARLY by an authorised technician from the Gas Safe Register (minimum annually)
