2023 Brands Hatch race calendar confirmed

The provisional 2023 race calendars for all MSV circuits have been confirmed ahead of another packed season of events on two and four wheels across the country.

Brands Hatch will host more than its fair share of the best that UK motorsport has to offer between now and the end of the year, with countless headline events. These will include two rounds each of the Bennetts British Superbike Championship and the Kwik Fit British Touring Car Championship, plus GT World Challenge Europe which returns on 13/14 May.

Other major championships to visit will include the Intelligent Money British GT Championship and GB3 Championship partnered by the BRDC, plus Time Attack UK and the British Truck Racing Championship. The NASCAR Whelen Euro Series returns to Brands Hatch too, headlining American SpeedFest 10 on 17/18 June, amidst another summer of family-friendly themed festivals.

There will be special historic events as well, displaying many facets of motor racing's golden past, whilst a packed club event schedule on two and four wheels ensures that there is something to see most weekends from March until November.

To a view a full calendar, outlining all of the events at MSV circuits in 2023 please visit www.brandshatch.co.uk.

Mobiloo to return to Brands Hatch for key 2023 fixtures

The accessible Mobiloo toilet will be at Brands Hatch for a number of major headline events in 2023, including both Brands Hatch rounds of the Bennetts British Superbike Championship (21-23 July and 13-15 October) plus each of the Kent venue's Kwik Fit British Touring Car Championship fixtures (6/7 May and 7/8 October).

Other events with the Mobiloo will include GT World Challenge Europe (13/14 May), American SpeedFest 10 (17/18 June) and two British Truck Racing Championship events (8/9 April and 4/5 November).

The Mobiloo features an adult-sized changing bench, hoist and a friendly attendant. If you wish to use the hoist, you just need to bring your own sling, and you're good to go. This will generally be located in the heart of the spectator area close to the Kentagon restaurant and Megastore, but full details will be shared on the Brands Hatch website and social media throughout the year.

See www.mobiloo.org.uk for further info.
